AUGUST 2008

Release of the RABQSA NFSA Edition 6

Milwaukee, Seoul and Sydney: RABQSA International, Inc (RABQSA) has recently released the National Food Safety Auditor Certification Scheme (NFSA) - Edition 6.

The latest edition reflects a series of updates to the certification requirements that have been developed in consultation with the food industry through Australian Food and Grocery Council (AFGC). These changes provide for the inclusion of industry-based scopes based on risk levels and changes to the education requirements.

“The inclusion of the industry scopes will give auditors greater flexibility in their choice of Food Safety auditor certification” stated Kim Leighton Director, Food Policy and Regulation, Australian Food and Grocery Council.

There is no impact on current RABQSA NFSA personnel certifications.
