RABQSA International establishes presence in Turkey!

Istanbul Turkey - Following the signing of a Heads of Agreement, AHI Management Consulting (AHI) and RABQSA International (RABQSA) have today announced the establishment of an RABQSA Office in Istanbul. The Office will provide direct access to RABQSA services and products to the Turkish market.

“This is a significant development in RABQSA’s international expansion, and our ability to market and deliver our services worldwide”, said Michael Carmody CEO RABQSA. “We are extremely proud to work with AHI in providing accredited personnel and training certification services tailored specifically to meet local industry needs. AHI through their direct engagement with the market and industry, on a range of management system consulting and training services, will compliment and enhance our service profile”, said Carmody.

“We are excited at the added value the relationship with RABQSA will create for AHI”, said Mesut Gulcan General Manager AHI. “RABQSA’s certification products will add a new dimension to the Turkish conformity assessment market. Particularly in the design and delivery of competency based auditor training, and auditor and management consultant certification”, said Gulcan.

The establishment of RABQSA office and service facilities in Turkey will compliment RABQSA’s existing international profile in Australia, New Zealand, Malaysia, Vietnam, Taiwan, Japan, Korea, the USA and Canada.
