

International Insurance Program For RABQSA Certified Personnel

Sydney, Milwaukee, Athens: RABQSA and First City Partnership Limited are pleased to announce that the new Professional Indemnity insurance scheme is launched. Initially aimed at the North American market, it is planned to roll the product out on a worldwide basis.

RABQSA in conjunction with Lloyd's Insurance Broking firm, First City Partnership Limited has created a Professional Indemnity Insurance offering in recognition of RABQSA Certified Personnel. First City Partnership Limited believes that RABQSA certified personnel warrant special attention by insurers because they represent the lowest risk exposure due to their demonstrated competence in their chosen fields of specialization.

"The fact that RABQSA Certification provides continuing development of a professional to an international set of standards gives our insurers more than fair justification to support the launch of international Professional Indemnity insurance coverage", stated Kevin Bayes, International Representative of First City.

Sourcing support from insurance specialists globally allows the scheme to be achieve superior coverage in the field of Professional Indemnity Insurance and cost advantages associated with the close working relationship with the provider.

"RABQSA is constantly seeking ways to add value to our certification offerings", commented Peter Holtmann, Director Business Development RABQSA. "Having the recognition and confidence in our certified personnel by one of the world's largest insurance providers [Lloyd's] demonstrates our global reach and capacity to offer to market a professional that delivers competent, professional service."
