

RABQSA International Appoints New Chairman

Sydney, Milwaukee, Athens: On the 1st November 2007 Mr. Dennis Atkinson will assume the appointment of Chairman of the RABQSA International Board of Directors.

Dennis Atkinson is the Global Quality Manager at Littelfuse Inc., the leading provider of circuit protection solutions to the Automotive and Electronics industry. Dennis has spent his entire career in Automotive Manufacturing. He worked more than 30 years at Ford Motor Company in a variety of manufacturing, engineering and quality assignments, including senior leadership positions in Supplier Quality and Vehicle Assembly Quality. He also served as Quality Director at GDX Automotive, a tier one supplier to the global vehicle manufacturers.

Dennis has served on numerous Boards, including the American Supplier Institute, and is a Senior Member of the American Society for Quality. Dennis joined the RABQSA Board of Directors in 2007.

"I look forward to working with our key stakeholders, my fellow directors, and the RABQSA management team, during this very challenging and exciting period for our industry", says Dennis. We have a good product and a well seasoned team of professionals on board, and I am confident we are the right path for growth and development.

Dennis Atkinson will replace Mr. John Knappenberger who served on the RAB-QSA merger Governing Council in 2004, then as Chairman of RABQSA International from January 2005 – October 2007. John was a strong driving force in the development of RABQSA over the past three years.
