

RABQSA Expands International Presence

Seoul Korea, At a media conference today, RABQSA International (RABQSA) announced the establishment of a fourth RABQSA Principal Office - RABQSA Seoul.

Following the signing of a cooperation arrangement with RIRA Co. Ltd, RABQSA will now offer personnel and training certification products and services directly into the North Asia region from its office in Seoul.

".....this is an exiting development in RABQSA's continued international growth and expansion", says Michael Carmody RABQSA President and Chief Executive Officer. "In cooperation with RIRA, RABQSA will now have the capability of proving a localized service to our customers in the North Asia region, including China, Japan, Taiwan and Vietnam" said Mr. Carmody.

".....we are very proud to work with RABQSA in the development of our mutual business interests" says Mr. Moo Sung Lee, RIRA Chief Executive Officer. "The development of new RABQSA products and services specific to the needs of our region is a welcomed initiative" says Mr. Lee.

RABQSA Seoul will compliment RABQSA Principal Offices in Athens, Milwaukee and Sydney. The office will be capable of receiving, evaluating and awarding RABQSA personnel and training certification. The Office will open for business 1 March 2008.
