

RABQSA Announces its First Certified Training Provider for Korea

Milwaukee, Sydney and Seoul: RABQSA International (RABQSA) has today announced the certification of Korean Management Association Registration & Assessments Inc. (KMAR) to the RABQSA Training Provider and Examiner Certification Scheme (TPECS).

KMAR is one of Korea's largest certification, training and assessment bodies with clients such as Samsung Everland, Tesco, Posco Construction, Hyundai Engineering, LG Household and Health Care, Korea Tourism Organization and Shinhan Bank.

"We are extremely proud to have KMAR as one of our premier certification clients" said Michael Carmody, President and Chief Executive Officer of RABQSA International Inc. "KMAR has demonstrated exceptional ability to embrace innovative teaching and examination practices", said Carmody. .

"Achieving RABQSA certification is very important to KMAR and demonstrates that our training programs meet international expectations" stated Eun Ju Hwang, Director KMAR. "We expect this certification to grow the number of trained auditing professionals against the highest industry standard in the Korean market."

KMAR and RABQSA share a common vision in expanding training certification into Corporate Social Responsibility, The Korean-based Good-Stay and Family Friendly programs, and the very innovative Human Competency Certification

"I appreciate CEO Mr. Ki Ho Park and Eun Ju Hwang, Director KMAR efforts in working with RABQSA towards TPECS certification. This is something very unique in North Asia Region." Quoted Sangpo Seo, Executive Director North Asia for RABQSA.

A list of KMAR's certified training courses is available on the RABQSA Register through the website at www.rabqsa.com
