

RABQSA launches the LockForce Maritime Security Professional (LFMSP) Certification Scheme

Milwaukee, Seoul and Sydney: RABQSA International Inc., (RABQSA) is officially launching the LockForce Maritime Security Professional (LFMSP) certification, in liaison with Industry and LockForce Consultancy of Australia.

Troy Lockyer, Director, LockForce Consultancy International Pty Ltd stated "The LockForce Maritime Security Professional Scheme is a "world first" providing a learning pathway to the maritime industry. This scheme promotes integrity, assurance and quality, to international organisations, contracting governments, port facilities and shipping companies, indicating personnel within the scheme are qualified internationally to conduct maritime security related tasks.

Troy went on to say, "I truly believe the growing maritime industry is craving for this scheme to assist in providing a benchmark, creating a robust management system demonstrating compliance and quality standards, world wide. This scheme will benefit individuals, corporate and industry, tenfold".

"This scheme shows the versatility and value of the qualification-based product in a highly demanding environment", commented Peter Holtmann, Acting President & CEO of RABQSA. "We look forward to seeing this scheme create a positive contribution to the maritime industry, LockForce and its scheme owners."

LockForce provides the worlds first certified ISPS course online, qualifying individuals as a Company Security Officer (CSO), Ship Security Officer (SSO) and Port Facility Security Officer (PFSO). On completion of the LockForce ISPS course students will then be provided with the relevant information from RABQSA about applying for the LFMSP Scheme. Please visit www.lockforce.com.au for further details.
