

RABQSA Opens International Office in Middle East

RABQSA Milwaukee, Seoul and Sydney: RABQSA International, Inc (RABQSA) has announced the establishment of an RABQSA International Office in Dubai.

The Office, in association with 7th Sense, is to be established in Dubai and will service the Middle Eastern and Gulf Region.

“7th Sense is extremely delighted and excited to represent RABQSA International within the Middle East and Gulf Region. The region has experienced rapid development over the last 10 years, with an increasing desire by public and private sector organisations to adopt world best practice standards. We believe that international certification of personnel and training courses through RABQSA International as a reputable and leading accredited certification body will assist in lifting industry standards within the region by providing greater recognition and assurance of personnel and training standards and quality” stated Mr. Ibrahim Awad, Managing Director of 7th Sense.

We have been encouraged by the increasing willingness of our Clients to opt for international certification. We believe that our experience in environment, health and safety management systems and strong understanding of the region, coupled with our unique relationship with RABQSA International, will enable us to lead the region in opening up new markets for international personnel and training certification” said Mr. Awad.

“The office in Dubai will compliment RABQSA’s international service capability” said Peter Holtmann Acting President and CEO RABQSA. The RABQSA Dubai Office will provide access to the range of RABQSA’s personnel and training certification products.

RABQSA principal offices are located in Milwaukee, Sydney and Seoul, with International Offices located in Tokyo, Fukuoka, Selangor, Auckland, Taiwan, Bangkok, Istanbul, Nicosia, Rio de Janeiro, Batam and Hanoi, with Seoul Branch Offices located Ho Chi Minh City and Beijing.
