

RABQSA International appoints new President and CEO

RABQSA Milwaukee, Seoul and Sydney: On Friday 14th August 2009, Mr. Peter Holtmann was appointed President and CEO of RABQSA International Inc., (RABQSA).

Mr. Holtmann has been acting President and CEO since February 2009 following the resignation of Mr. Michael Carmody.

“The appointment to this role is extremely rewarding and will provide me an opportunity to put my mark on the personnel certification industry” Said Mr. Holtmann.

After an extensive evaluation of global applicants for the RABQSA CEO position, the Board of Directors has selected Peter Holtmann as the best qualified candidate to become the next CEO of RABQSA. “Peter has demonstrated excellent leadership and strong business management skill. His extensive experience with RABQSA and the global Assessment and Compliance Bodies has given him unique insight into what is required for RABQSA to prosper in the coming years” Said Mr. Dennis Atkinson, Chairman of the RABQSA International Board of Directors.

“RABQSA faces many challenges in the coming years and I want to ensure this organization is seen as the best and first choice for certification of professionals in many industries. RABQSA must ensure value is not only demonstrated to market but delivered to its customers, for this we need positive engagement from all sectors. We as an organization must remain relevant and ensure we progress the career paths of professionals and offer valued input to the international personnel certification community.” Mr. Holtmann was quoted as saying.
