

Important Changes to RABQSA Services and Payment Options

Milwaukee, Seoul, Sydney: RABQSA will be implementing a new online application, expansion, and recertification system effective December 2009. The new system will expedite your application, recertification, and expansion process giving you an easier and more convenient way to obtain and maintain your professional certification.

To ensure you always remain up-to-date with your payments we will also be providing routine debiting of your credit card or bank account and supply automatic invoicing/receipting for your records. RABQSA will continue to accept payment by credit card, BPAY®, and ACH; however, we will no longer accept cheques/checks.

At RABQSA, we strive to complete applications within 10 days of receipt. Currently, sixty percent of all applications are completed within 10 days. Further more, we predict with the new system that applications will be completed within 5 days of receipt.

We will provide you further updates as the new system is implemented. If you have questions regarding this matter, please contact a member of our team and they will provide you with assistance.

We appreciate your continued support of RABQSA products and services and we will continue to work hard, providing value and international recognition of your professional competencies.
